

HAVING AN ANSWER

How well do you know what scripture teaches? Respond to the following statements with an answer supported by scripture.

STATEMENT	Agree	Dis-agree	RESPONSE	Source
1. The sins of all men are propitiated for, but that propitiation can only be applied by personal belief.				I John 2:2; Jn. 11:51-52
2. God causes men to believe on the basis of election.				John 6:29, 37, 44, 64-65; 17:8-9
3. While Christ's death is abundantly sufficient to die for the sins of the whole world, it is only aimed to redeem those chosen by God before the foundation of the world.				Matt. 1:21; John 11:52; Heb. 10:14
4. Atonement is limited by the free will of man.				John 10:26-27; Eph. 2:4-9;
5. Limited atonement means that Christ died for a few.				Is. 53:12; Matt. 20:28; 26:28; Eph. 5:25; Jo. 10:15; I Pet. 2:24
6. According to John 3:16, Jesus died for the whole world.				Jo. 3:16-18; Ro. 8:29-39 Jn. 13:1; 15:18; I Jn. 5:18
7. Man is created with a free will, a free will to sin and not a will to choose God.				Ro. 6:14-20; Jer. 17:9; Jn. 3:19; I Cor. 2:14; Ro. 3:10-12
8. The word "all" in scripture means all men in the entire world without exception.				Mat. 10:22; Mk. 11:32; Acts. 22:15 II Peter 1:1; 3:9
9. The Bible teaches that God is absolutely sovereign over His creation, including the actions of mankind and that God has predestined whatsoever comes to pass.				Eph. 1:5, 11; Rom. 9:13-22; 8:29-39
10. Men are valid secondary agents to God's sovereignty and are truly responsible for their actions.				Acts. 2:23; 4:27,28; Jn. 9:11; Rev. 20:12; James 1:13

